

CPN® Champion Program Fact Sheet

Purpose of the CPN Certification Champion Program

PNCB's CPN Champions are select volunteers who serve as ambassadors for Certified Pediatric Nurse certification. Champions are an important professional resource to their colleagues and promote the value of CPN certification. If you are an enthusiastic supporter of certification, becoming a Champion offers great benefits and a new way to mentor others.

Requirements for becoming a Champion:

Hold active CPN status and be in good standing with PNCB
Commit to promoting nursing certification/Recert and competency development Create excitement, share brochures, talk to colleagues at events, and answer basic questions about CPN certification and Recert
Disseminate important PNCB information Encourage colleagues to respond to PNCB's periodic role delineation study and disseminate important announcements such as updates to the exam content outline
Take part in one online survey per year with the PNCB Participate in an annual survey to share best practices and give program feedback

PNCB CPN Champion benefits:

Champion gear	Special Champion tote and lapel pin
Free Recert after 1 year of service	After your first full year of serving as a Champion and each year after, you'll receive a credit on your account for free Recert after completing an annual survey.
Letters of Recognition	Upon request, we'll let your leadership and supervisor know the wonderful things you're doing to support certification!

PNCB Support:

Dedicated PNCB staff	We're here to support your efforts with Champion Program staff who can answer questions and discuss ideas with you.
Comprehensive tool kit	Brochures, fliers, talking points, giveaways, goal posters, etc. Tool kits can be restocked at any time.
Information/Feedback	For your own knowledge, or to share with leadership, we the number of CPNs at your location provide upon request. Best practices and ideas are routinely shared to support your activities.
Networking Space	Champions have an email listserv to share successes and collaborate.
