Where You Will Test – In-Person Testing Centers
PNCB delivers its exam through Prometric testing centers. Prometric is an independent testing agency and the leading provider of testing services and solutions for corporate, academic, government, financial and professional service clients.

Exams are delivered by computer at over 300 Prometric Test Centers located throughout the United States, Canada, some US territories, and the UAE. A current listing of centers, including addresses and driving directions, can be viewed at https://www.prometric.com/pncb. Specific address information will be provided when a candidate schedules an exam appointment. We suggest you also visit https://www.prometric.com/pncb to review Prometric’s commonly asked questions regarding exam day and more.

Where You Will Test – Live Remote Proctored Exam
PNCB also delivers the PMHS and CPN certification exams by live remote proctoring through our testing vendor, Examity. Candidates choose the time and date to test at home or another quiet location.

- Additional security procedures are in effect and included in the candidate conduct requirements. Review these critical rules to understand what can cause termination of a remote proctored exam or invalidate results and the 5 Tips for Online Test-Taking Success.
- You will supply the computer which must include a camera, microphone, and internet connection. The camera must provide a clear picture and the microphone and speakers fully functioning to communicate with the Proctor. Review the system requirements here.
- Additional resources include:
  - Live Remote Proctoring Session video
  - Live Remote Proctoring Test-take Guide

Nondiscrimination Policy
PNCB and its testing vendors do not discriminate among candidates’ age, sex, color, creed, disability, gender identity, health status, lifestyle, nationality, ethnicity, race, religion, marital status, sexual orientation, national origin, citizenship, status as a Vietnam era or special disabled veteran, or other statutory or otherwise legally protected category. All programs of the Pediatric Nursing Certification Board (PNCB) will be administered without discrimination on the basis of age, sex, color, creed, disability, gender identity, health status, lifestyle, nationality, ethnicity, race, religion, marital status, sexual orientation, national origin, citizenship, status as a Vietnam era or special disabled veteran, or other statutory or otherwise legally protected category. This program will apply to all aspects of the Certification Program, including but not limited to its dealings with volunteers, employees, and applicants. PNCB will make reasonable accommodations for the known disability of qualified individuals unless undue hardship to PNCB would result, and such accommodation would not be required by law. Due to the nature of live-remote proctored exams, some accommodations might require testing at an in-person testing center. This policy also prohibits unlawful discrimination or discriminatory conduct by any certification program volunteer or staff member.

Exam Eligibility Approval & Scheduling Notification for all Certification Exams
PNCB exam candidates are ready to schedule their exam with our test vendors after they receive an official eligibility approval and scheduling notification by email from PNCB. Emails are sent to contact information included on the candidate’s exam application. Candidates are responsible for keeping contact information current with PNCB. The detailed email about eligibility approval and scheduling notification will also be available to each candidate by logging in at www.pncb.org to view Message History. Read your eligibility email immediately and follow the instructions on how to schedule your exam.

Exam Ethics
Exam ethics are a personal responsibility. Please review the Exam Ethics web page. Protect yourself, your colleagues, and the credential by not discussing test questions with anyone.

1. Please view PNCB’s exam ethics video before undertaking preparations for your exam.
2. PNCB offers a full exam ethics toolkit with a free CE module.

Testing Windows
The notification described above informs each candidate of the testing window assigned to them. CPNP-PC and CPN candidates receive a 90-day window. CPNP-AC and PMHS candidates receive a shorter window, depending on the date of application:

In-Person Testing Centers – Candidates select a date within their assigned window to test and will then contact Prometric to schedule their exam. Schedule promptly after receiving your eligibility approval and scheduling notification because many other organizations use Prometric for testing. Waiting to schedule may impact your opportunity to take the exam on your preferred date, time, or location. If you cancel less than 5 days before the end of your testing window, and Prometric cannot accommodate you with a reschedule within those 4 days prior to the end of your testing period, you will need to reapply, and you must repay the application fees.

Live Remote Proctored Exams – Candidates select a date and time within their assigned window to test then contact Examity to schedule their exam. Exams may be rescheduled on or before the test date and time without additional fees.

Disability Accommodations
PNCB and its testing vendor comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and strive to ensure that no individual with a disability is deprived of the opportunity to take the exam solely by reason of that disability. PNCB makes special testing arrangements for any candidate with a professionally diagnosed and documented disability. Under the ADA, an individual with a disability is a person who: (1) has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; OR (2) has a record of such an impairment; OR (3) is regarded as having such an impairment.

PNCB makes every attempt to address requests for testing accommodations based upon review of documented health needs and testing method (on-site or live remote proctored). Wheelchair access is available at all Prometric centers. In all cases, requests for special accommodations including breast pumping and documentation of disability needs are to be included at the time of application. This form is required before accommodation requests may be granted. Review the requirements for special testing accommodations at www.pncb.org or call PNCB at 1-888-641-2767 for questions. Candidates with special accommodation(s) must schedule their exam by phone with Prometric.

- The new 90-day testing period begins once your application for an extension is processed. It does not grant you 180 days to take the exam.

- Extensions are not available for CPN exam candidates using a PNCB No Pass, No Pay payment charge code.

assigned testing window,
If the candidate fails to submit an online application for extension to the PNCB 5 business days before expiration of an assigned testing window.

Inclement Weather, Power Failure, or Emergency for On-Site Testing
In the event of inclement weather or unforeseen emergencies on a test day, Prometric will determine whether circumstances warrant the cancellation, and subsequent rescheduling, of an exam. Prometric generally determines the night before if a center will close. To learn if your site is currently closed for appointments or will be the next day, visit:

If an exam is cancelled, Prometric will email impacted candidates to reschedule. Every attempt is made to administer the exam as scheduled. The exam will not be rescheduled if Prometric personnel are able to open the center. If power to a center is temporarily interrupted during an administration, your exam will restart where you left off and you will be able to continue. Prometric’s policy allows for 30 minutes of interrupted time before the candidate is asked about rescheduling.

Taking the Exam using Live Remote Proctoring
You will use your own computer and internet connection. Your computer must include a working camera, microphone, and speakers. Tablets and Chromebooks may not be used for testing. We suggest using a wired internet connection to avoid disturbances that may happen due to Wi-fi and ensure your internet connection has an upload and download speed of at least 2Mbps. You are encouraged to arrive 15 minutes prior to the start of your exam time to allow for connection with your Proctor and troubleshooting of any technical issues. You must always stay on the camera.
Bathroom breaks are not allowed. Please refer to the below links for detailed information:

Candidates should arrive at the test center at least 30 minutes prior to their scheduled exam. A CANDIDATE WHO ARRIVES MORE THAN 15 MINUTES AFTER THE SCHEDULED TESTING TIME WILL NOT BE ADMITTED. If at any time prior to testing your legal name changes, you must email exam@pncb.org with a request to change your name and provide supporting documentation such as a copy of the marriage license, court-approved name change document, or divorce decree. PNCB and its testing vendors maintain exam administration and security standards designed to assure that all candidates are provided the same opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge, skills, and abilities in a fair and professional testing environment.

Irregular behavior is attempted violation(s) of the rules regarding any part of the examination process. Irregular behavior includes but is not limited to:

- Violations before testing:
  - Providing false information on the application.
  - Providing false admittance information.
  - Altering transcripts.
  - Seeking information about exam items and/or answers from previous examinees or formal or informal test preparation groups.
  - Engaging an impersonator.
  - Using a camera device.

- Violations while testing:
  - Impersonating an examinee.
  - Possessing or accessing unauthorized items in the testing room or center, e.g., food, electronic devices.
  - Communicating with other examinees during the testing period.
  - Failing to adhere to a proctor’s instruction or request.
  - Attempting to gain access to content being tested during the testing or on breaks.
  - Creating a disturbance, being abusive or uncooperative.
  - Caught with a camera device while in the testing room.
  - Accessing a locker.

- Violations after testing:
  - Altering exam results.
  - Reproducing exam items, by any means, including reconstruction from memory.
  - Communicating by any method about exam items and/or answers with other examinees, potential examinees or formal or informal test preparation groups.
  - Attempting to remove notes or documents used during testing.

- Consequences of Irregular Behavior
  - If evidence is found of a breach of exam materials before the exam administration, and evidence suggests that the behavior is organized and/or may involve a number of examinees, PNCB reserves the right to cancel the exam administration. If evidence is found of possession of a camera prior to test administration, the exam administration will be cancelled. If evidence is found of a breach in the security of exam materials after an exam administration, and evidence suggests that the behavior was organized and/or may have involved a number of examinees, PNCB reserves the right to nullify the exam results of some or all examinees.
  - If violations are observed during the exam, the testing vendor will report the violations to PNCB, and an investigation will ensue. If a candidate is caught with a camera while in the testing room, the camera will be confiscated, and the exam immediately suspended. If exam results have not been reported, they will be withheld during the investigation, and the candidate will not be permitted to take subsequent exams until a final decision regarding irregular behavior has been made.
  - If after PNCB’s review of the available information it is determined that irregular behavior has occurred, the violator’s exam results will be invalidated. The candidate will either be prohibited from taking future PNCB certification exams or special procedures will be implemented for future exams. PNCB reserves the right to request a retest of any candidate if available evidence causes loss of confidence in the exam results for any reason. PNCB may choose to provide notice of the sanctions imposed to entities with a need to know such as a state board of nursing. Exam fees will not be refunded and PNCB may also pursue a legal remedy against the examinee(s).

- If the irregular behavior involves unauthorized reproduction and/or distribution of exam materials or dissemination of exam content, PNCB will pursue all legal means available to protect the copyrighted materials.

Tutorial – Onsite PNCB Exams Only

After your identification is confirmed, you will be seated at a personal testing carrel. Prior to taking the timed exam, you will be given the opportunity to practice by taking a 15-minute tutorial on the computer. The time you use for this tutorial is not counted as part of your exam time or score. When you are comfortable with the computer testing process, you may quit the tutorial and begin the timed exam.

Timed Exam – For all PNCB Exams

Instructions are provided on the screen before beginning. The computer monitors the time you spend on the exam. All PNCB exams except the PMHS exam are 3 hours, the PMHS exam is 2.5 hours. The exam will end as soon as the time allowed for testing is reached. A clock displayed on the screen indicates the time remaining for completion of your exam. Unlike adaptive testing used for the NCLEX exam, PNCB certification exams do not end when a passing score is determined. Your exam will only stop if you reach the end of your allotted testing period or if you finish and submit your answers for scoring before the end of your allotted testing period. You also can return to questions and change an answer before final submission.

Only one question is presented at a time. Choices of answers to the exam question are identified as A, B, C, or D. You must indicate your answer by using your mouse to click on the desired option to choose your answer. You may change your answer as many times as you wish during the exam time limit.

An exam question may be left unanswered and returned to later in the testing session. These questions should be bookmarked for later review. When the exam is completed, the number of exam questions answered is reported. If all questions have not been answered, and there is time remaining, return to the exam and answer those questions. You should answer all questions to the best of your ability. If you are uncertain about an answer, you should guess, because an unanswered “No Response” question has no chance of earning you any credit. There is no additional penalty for incorrect responses as opposed to “No Response” questions.

PNCB Exam Information

PNCB’s national certification exams (Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner and Certified Pediatric Nurse) contain 175 multiple-choice items (questions). Twenty-five of the items are non-scored pre-test items and are randomly distributed throughout the exam. PNCB’s Pediatric Primary Care Mental Health Specialist (PMHS) exam contains 150 items. Twenty-five of the items are non-scored pre-test items and are randomly distributed throughout the exam.

You should answer all exam items to the best of your ability. Please inform the exam proctor if the exam unexpectedly ends before you have completed all test items. Report any technical difficulties to the exam proctor as well.

Each exam item has 3 to 4 suggested responses, only ONE of which is correct. Each year new exam items are pre-tested as non-scored items to determine how well they will perform before they are used in the scored portion of the exam. These pre-test questions cannot be distinguished from the scored exam items, so it is important to answer all items. Also note that each candidate’s pass/fail status is determined by their responses to the scored items. Answers you provided for the pre-test items do not affect your score. Sample questions are posted at www.pncb.org, in addition to your exam's content outline (test blueprint), and possible preparatory resources.
On-Site Test Centers

If you experience any difficulties while at the test center, please alert the Prometric on-site test center administrator (TCA). This Prometric staff member will make every effort to remedy the situation. If the problem cannot be remedied within a reasonable amount of time – usually 30 minutes – you will be offered another date/time within your testing window to take the exam. To have the incident investigated by PNCB, you must:

1. Alert test center staff promptly.
2. Request a ticket number from the TCA before leaving the test center.
3. Notify PNCB via email to exam@pncb.org or call PNCB at 1-888-641-2767 (PNCB’s business hours are Monday-Friday 8:30am-5:00pm ET) immediately after you leave the test center.

Notification must be timely. PNCB staff will investigate the issue reported and follow-up with the candidate. Please be patient as this investigation could take 1-2 weeks depending on the type of issue reported.

The Following Information Pertains to all Exam Candidates

After the Exam

Candidates are asked to complete a short evaluation after their testing experience. In most cases (unless otherwise advertised), candidates will then be able to view their personal unofficial preliminary exam status indicating Exam Status = Pass OR Exam Status = Fail. PNCB will email official pass/fail results, usually within 2-3 weeks after testing.

If You Pass

An official congratulations letter noting your PNCB certification number will be emailed to you. An online wallet card can also be accessed by logging in to your PNCB account. A wall certificate will be mailed to you within 4-6 weeks. You will also receive future emails about maintaining your newly earned credential through PNCB recertification. Please visit www.pncb.org for detailed information about recertification.

Using Your Credential

Our suggestion is to always list your degree first, then licensure followed by certification. Should you have any awards or honors, these come last:

- Terri Moore, BSN, RN, CPN
- Patricia Johnson, PhD, RN, CPNP-AC/PC, PMHS, FAANP
- Jane Smith, DNP, CPNP-PC

Listing your highest degree first is standard. If you have a non-nursing degree, this will come next then licensure. If you have multiple certifications, often people list the one earned first in the first position, and the one earned most recently in the final position. If you want to use your credentials when charting, be sure to check your employer’s policy on doing so. Let others know the value of your PNCB certification by wearing your lapel pin and introducing yourself as a Certified Pediatric Nurse, or Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner-Primary Care, Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner-Acute Care, Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Primary/Acute Care, or Pediatric Primary Care Mental Health Specialist to patients, their families, and peers. Mention your credential in your hospital staff bio. PNCB credentials are federally trademarked and my only be used by those who earn and actively maintain their certification.

If You Do Not Pass

Official results will be emailed from PNCB once the result file is received and processed – usually within 2-3 weeks after testing. Your score report will provide details of your performance in each major content area on the exam content outline. Please review your score performance to learn more about your strengths and weaknesses in all the exam content areas. Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner-Primary Care, or Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner-Acute Care exam candidates can visit www.pncb.org for current retest policies and timing. Unsuccessful Certified Pediatric Nurse exam candidates may apply to retest after receiving official test results and will be assigned a different form of the exam and a new 90-day testing window, provided they still meet PNCB’s eligibility criteria. Unsuccessful Pediatric Primary Care Mental Health Specialist exam candidates may apply to retest after receiving official test results and will be assigned a new testing window, provided they still meet PNCB’s eligibility criteria. You can complete your re-examination application online via the PNCB website at www.pncb.org. Please contact PNCB if you have any questions at exam@pncb.org.

Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Candidates Testing with a Transcript Exception

Candidates who have met criteria for a transcript exception and pass the exam will not receive official pass results until the official, final transcript is received. For unsuccessful candidates, official failing exam scores are released, and the candidate may retest according to PNCB’s retest policy.

Pass/Fail Score Determination

PNCB examinations are criterion referenced. This means the passing score is based on predetermined criteria. Your ability to pass the examination depends on the knowledge you display, not on the performance of other candidates.

The methodology used to set the minimum passing score is the Angoff method, applied by a representative sample group of subject matter experts in the field from across the country who also hold credential you are seeking. This panel evaluated each question on the examination to determine how many correct answers are necessary to demonstrate the knowledge and skills required to pass.

How many questions do I need to get right to pass the exam?

Passing scores may vary slightly for each version of the examination. To ensure fairness to all candidates, a process of statistical equating is used. This involves the following:

1. Selecting an appropriate mix of individual questions for each version of the examination that meet the content distribution requirements of the examination content outline.
2. Obtaining an overall difficulty level (as each scored question has been pretested, a difficulty level is available); the standard setting process then considers the overall difficulty level of each test form.
3. Slight variations in difficulty level are determined, then addressed by adjusting the passing score up or down, depending on the overall difficulty level statistics for the group of scored questions that appear on a particular form of the examination application.
PNCB uses scaled scores that range from 200 (0 items correct) to 800 (all items correct) with a scaled score of 400 corresponding to the cut-point on the exam. This means that the passing score across all forms is 400. Using a scaled score is how a certification board may put all scores, regardless of which form the candidate takes, on the same scale, or frame of reference.

Cancellation of Scores

PNCB and its testing vendors are responsible for the validity and integrity of the scores they report. On occasion, occurrences, such as computer malfunction or misconduct by a candidate, may cause a score to be suspect. PNCB and its testing vendors reserve the right to void or withhold exam results if, upon investigation, violation of its regulations is discovered.
